Required Documentation

- A letter from your public interest law employer, on employer's letterhead, which includes your name, a descriptive statement of the position held, dates of employment, salary or other compensation received from employment, salary for the upcoming year (if available), the office's address, and the name of its director or other contact persons. Note that the employer must be either (a) a nonprofit organization with tax exemption status under IRS Code Section 501(c)(3); (b) a qualifying local, state or federal government agency; or (c) an employer approved by the PILRAP Committee.
- Lender statements for all your outstanding educational loans indicating the total amount due, the current monthly payment amount, and the status of the loan (i.e., in repayment, deferred, overdue, etc.)
- A signed copy of your federal income tax return (without schedules) for the most recent calendar year. If you were not employed in your present position during the most recent calendar year, you must submit your most recent pay stub.
- Spouse's or partner's federal income tax return (without schedules), if not filed jointly for the most recent calendar year, and a statement of the amount of the spouse's educational loan repayments, if applicable.

If you have previously received PILRAP funding, you must provide all of the above listed documentation plus:

- Proof of your prior year's student loan repayment in an amount equal to or greater than the prior year's PILRAP loan amount. This proof must include repayment obligation/yearly amount required by lender(s), amounts paid to lender(s), and dates of payments.

Please note that the PILRAP Committee may ask you to provide clarification or follow-up documentation.
